

Atlantic Puffin

The Atlantic Puffin is one of Iceland's most iconic seabirds. Known for its brightly colored beak and striking black-and-white plumage, it nests in cliffs and burrows during the summer months. Puffins are excellent divers, using their wings to 'fly' underwater while hunting small fish.

